Move Made by Political Leaders Brings Ray of Hope to the Plodders.

PHILADELPHIA STRIKE ABOUT OVER.

Indications are that the Trouble will Be Settled Today and the Men Return to Work This Afternoon-Mob of Nearly 4,000 Men Turned Back by Force of 500 Policemen-Disturbed Districts All Quiet at 10 P. M.

Philadelphia, June 3.—"The outlook and they dispersed after hurling a few or a settlement of the strike of the stones through the windows. for a settlement of the strike of the motormen and conductors of the Rapid Transit company is very bright." said C. O. Pratt, leader of the strikers, tonight. This declaration, together with statement by State Senator Mc-Nichol, that the strike would be settled within twenty-four hours, has brought a ray of hope to the thousands of footsore Philadelphians who have been plodding to and from their daily toll since Saturday, May 29.

The report that the strike would probably be settled within twenty-four hours spread like widdre tonight but not before the rioters in the Kensington district had stamed on their raid of destruction.

Mob of 4,000 Men Halted. Mob of 4,000 Men Halted.

Early in the evening a mob of nearly 2,000 persons formed on Kensington avenue and started for the main barn of the Transit company, at Eighth and Danphin streets, for the purpose, as they declared, of destroying the structure. T heir number was augmented as the march proceeded, so that by the time the barn was reached there were nearly 4,000 persons in the mob. The company had been warned of the approach of the mob, and when the crowd reached the barn it was met by 500 policemen. The array of bluecoats had a quieting effect on the rioters, Lawlessness in Early Evening. At Broad street and Eric avenue, Thirteenth street and Allegheny avenue, and Allegheny avenue, and Allegheny avenue, and Allegheny avenue and Clearfield streets the demonstrations early in the evening were almost as serious as those in the Kensington district. Cars were wrecked, motormen and conductors were beaten, policemen were assaulted. Several were injured by the indiscriminate hurling of stones and clubs by the lawless element. No attempt was made to burn the cars, the mob being content with breaking the windows, tearing the curtains and smashing the seats. smashing the seats.

EXPORTS OF COTTONS TO CHINA Marked Increase Shown by April Ex-port Statement-Normal Conditions

(Special to The Bulletin.) Washington, June 3.—The April ex-ort statement of the bureau of staport statement of the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor shows clearly the marked increase of exports of cottons to China and the return towards normal conditions. In the single month of April the quantity of cotton goods exported to China was 16,786,348 yards, against 7,237,119 in April of last year, and in the ten months ending with April, 1869, the total export of cotton claims to China was 109,116,737 yards, against 50,597,101 yards in the corresponding period of 1968. This total of 100 million yards of cottons sent to China in the ten months ending with April, 1909 is larger than any corresponding period prior to 1899, and has only been exprior to 1899, and has only been ex-ceeded on six occasions, namely, in 1899, 1900, 1902, 1903, 1903 and 1906.

China is, as a rule, the largest purchaser of American cottons, but in the years 1907 and 1908 the exports of cotton cloths to that country fell - a small fraction of those of the immediately, preceding years. Exports of cotton cloths to China averaged in the fiscal years 1905 and 1906 486 million yards per annum; in 1907 and 1908 they averaged but 68 millions per annum, or one-seventh as much as the average of 1905-6. In the fiscal year 1906 the quantity of cotton cloths exported to China aggregated 498,521,402 yards; in the fiscal year 1908, only two years later, the quantity was 49,876,671, or just one-tenth as much as in 1906.

This large falling off in the exports of cotton cloths to our former largest customer, China, was due chiefly at least to the fact that the imports of that country in 1995 and 1908 were abnormally large and far in excess of the actual consuming power of that market.

Mr. Robbins' Argument Finished. Mr. Robbins' Argument Finished.

Mr. Robbins of the New Haven road was first allowed to finish his argument, begun yesterday, on the matter of making rates and he went into an exposition of the way in which rates have been made, illustrating his ideas with examples such as the building of a railroad to bring ore to market and the subsequent development of coal mines along the route, the product of which could be handled profitably, as a mere fraction of the rate given to the mine owner for whose benefit the road was built. He said that adjust-road was built. the mine owner for whose benefit the road was built. CLASHES IN THE SENATE. ALDRICH TAKEN TO TASK.

Rhode Island Senator Accused of Offer ing Affront to Germany.

Washington June 3.—The senate was not in an amicable state of mind today and as a consequence there were sevand as a consequence there were several clashes of temper. The day was begun with a speech by Senator Stone of Missouri in which he asserted that the German officials had taken exception to remarks recently made by Senator Aldrich relative to the wage state ment supplied by the German government at the request of the American secretary of state.

Mr. Aldrich had characterized as "impertihent" the effort which he claimed had been made ment to influence American tariff legis-lation, and Mr. Stone undertook to show that the epithet had been appiled to the German government.

the German government.

Mr. Aldrich resented this implication. but he repeatedly said that the Ger man manufacturers had undertaken by influence the course of the tariff bill and he charged that in so doing they had been guilty of impertinence.

During the course of his remarks Mr.

Aldrich intimated that Mr. Stone was acting as a representative of Germany and this remark aroused the anger of the Missourian. Declaring his right to speak his mind as an American sen-ator, he said that the use of the expression was "a gross impertinence." The colloquy consumed almost three hours of time. Ultimately Mr. Aldrich paid a high compliment to the German people and their emperor and the incident closed for the day with the statement by Mr. Stone that while Mr. Aldrich and Mr. Depew, who had also been involved in the controversy, not made a straightforward retraction, as he had believed they should, they had so "sugar coated" the dose as to relieve it of its bitter taste.

There were 34 senators present. Every republican senator who is in the city, except Mr. Lafollette, was in his seat and his absence was made the subject. and his absence was made the subject of crificism that involved the sincerity of his attitude on the tariff bill, and of his attitude on the tarm out, and finally descended to serious attacks upon him by conservative republicans in charge of the bill and spirited definition in the serious insurgents and democrats. Finally the tense situation was amouth-ed over, but an outbreak is threatened and is almost sure to occur when the Wisconsin senator again gets the floor. The most important amendment adopted was a reduction of the duty on mon gloves for women and children from $1.75 to $1.25 per dozen. The balance of the glove schedule, which was a restoration of the Dingley tariff rates, which were considerably higher, was agreed to. The senate adjourned at 11 o'clock.

and among railroad interests in general the country over, as it is pretty generally believed that the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad is more intimately concerned than is the Boston and Maine, for 110,000 shares of whose stock the Billiard company is designed as a holding corporation.

The resolution went through today after an hour's discussion of two or three amendments, one of which was considered in part a week ago, but was defeated this afternoon. As a whole the resolution is somewhat changed from the shape in which it was favorably reported by the committee, on incorporations, but lis friends claim it has suffered no particular damage.
